Bullion

Gold dropped weighed down by a firmer dollar and as outlook remains clouded by prospects of further interest rate hikes from the U.S. Federal Reserve. The Institute for Supply Management survey showed raw materials prices increasing last month, with the rebound in prices at the factory gate suggesting inflation could remain elevated for a while.

Energy

Crude oil gained amid hopes for a rebound Chinese demand after data pointed to robust manufacturing and services activities in China. Natural gas dropped as rising output and forecasts for less heating demand next week more than offset a bigger-than-expected weekly storage draw.

Base Metal

Copper prices dropped as the Grasberg copper mine in Indonesia, which is owned by Freeport-McMoRan, has resumed operations. Panama and First Quantum were about to reach an agreement on the Cobre Copper Mine.
